CBS REPORTS: "THE HOT AND COLD WARS OF ALLEN DULLES" APRIL 26

Allen Dulles, America's former intelligence chief, reminisces about his life as director of the Central Intelligence Agency and offers an inside look at communism in action on CBS REPORTS: "The Hot and Cold Wars of Allen Dulles," Thursday, April 26 (10:00-11:00 PM, EST) on the CBS Television Network. Mr. Dulles talks informally with CBS News Correspondent Eric Sevareid.

As the former head of one of the largest information-gathering agencies in the world, Mr. Dulles speaks frankly about modern espionage, the modus operandi of the twentieth-century spy, and some of the achievements of his agents.

In re-living some of the highlights of his CIA career under three Presidents, he reveals little-known details of United States action and policy during the Cuban invasion and the U-2 incident.

Mr. Dulles talks about the philosophy of communism and evaluates its future strengths and weaknesses. He also offers a "cold war" primer for the individual American who wants to take an active part in the conflict.

CBS REPORTS: "The Hot and Cold Wars of Allen Dulles" will be sponsored by the Tidewater Oil Company, represented by Foote, Cone & Belding, Inc. Edward M. Jones will be the producer. Fred W. Friendly is CBS News executive producer of CBS REPORTS.
